

Guatemala Sendoff – Teams, Textiles, & a Musical Feast

Tuesday May 23
5 to 10 p.m.

La Cocina Restaurant
Courtyard & Cantina
Old Town Artisans
201 N. Court Avenue

Join St. Michael's Guatemala Project volunteers as they prepare to leave for summer work among rural Maya in the mountains of Guatemala. Enjoy food and libations that benefit the project.

🍷 Pablo Gonzalez, 6 p.m. Classical guitar
"His music is a feast for the ear" – Thomas Patterson,
Director, Bolton Guitar Studies, Univ. of Arizona.

🍷 Maya handwoven textiles & trinkets on sale

Traditional textiles, beaded hummingbirds, satchels, earrings.

Greetings from Carlos de Leon, 7 p.m. Consul
General, Consulate of Guatemala in Tucson.

Maya fashion show with Guatemalan families from Tucson.

Pablo Peregrina Band, 8:30 p.m., celebrating the essence of Arizona's borderlands – energetic, soulful, resonant.

No Cover charge. Donations welcomed.

A Benefit for St. Michael's Guatemala Project, a non-sectarian informal partnership with Ixil and Quiché Maya who became refugees within their own country during Guatemala's 36-year internal conflict. Small teams will visit up to 22 rural hamlets during June and July.

Information: ilaa@mindspring.com, (520) 623-3063, www.cprguatemalaproject.org

