9 a.m. – Coffee, treats, Maya textile sale

9:30 a.m. – program, photos, questions

St. Michael & All Angels
Parish Center, 602 N. Wilmot Road

A summer of accompaniment

- ❖ 17 volunteers
- ❖ 441 total volunteer days
- ❖ 21 rural Ixil and Quiché Maya communities
- ❖ unexpected beauties, joys & sorrows, laughter
- ❖ effects of migration
- ❖ post-conflict realities

Join St. Michael's Guatemala Project team volunteers for an informal, eclectic account of summer experience that took them, divided into small groups, from isolated mountain hamlets accessible only by foot paths to resettlements on the Pacific coastal plain, as part of a 24-year non-sectarian partnership with the CPR-Sierra, survivors of Guatemala's 36-year internal conflict.
